When you buy goods on credit you pay a larger profit than if you paid cash; when you spend your money with a merchant who sells on credit you also pay that large profit, for he can't sell you goods cheaper than he does your neighbor, if you do pay cash.

Our terms are CASH. We don't sell on credit to anybody, and it will not take long for you to see that you can save money by dealing with us.

We are satisfied that our $1.50 Shoes for Ladies and Misses are the best in town. Try a pair of them.

Wrinkles

Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

DANCY SPEAKS.

He Entertains People of His Color at the Court House.

John C. Dancy, the negro collector of customs for the port of Wilmington, arrived in the city Saturday night and spoke at the court house to about two hundred and fifty negroes and twenty white people. In justice to the white people be it said that half a dozen of these were democratic curiosity seekers and two thirds of the republican whites are candidates for office. Dancy was introduced by a colored man named Heaven. In fact everything was run by gentlemen of color Dancy started off by telling his audience that Glenn and Aycock had spoken to them and he presumed had told them lies, and that he had come to tell them the truth. He made a flowery speech of two hours, but most of it was taken up with illustrations and he said little except in ridicule of the democratic party and praise of the negroes. He said: The democrats are yelling nigger. Why is this when they elected 107 negro magistrates in one day? (great applause) Mind you I'm not complaining. I think they displayed rare wisdom. Rare wisdom indeed! He failed to inform his negro hearers that the democrats allowed republicans to appoint magistrates in their own counties, and that they appointed negroes while making the democrats believe their appointees were white. By this time the negroes were getting warmed up and every sentence got a "dats right," or "dats de trufe" from the audience. Dancy dwelt on the disfranchisement rot for half an hour. He said the democrats had brought Tillman into the State from S. Carolina, and that Tillman had done more than any other man to disfranchise the South Carolina negro. He exclaimed, "If you don't want Tillmanism why introduce Tillman? At this the negroes and white republicans applauded enormously. White republicans, you say you don't want negro rule. Then let us exclaim, "If you don't want Dancyism in Guilford county, why introduce Dancy?

Dancy then said, "The democrats are telling over the State that I am in favor of intermarriage between the races. That's not so! Fact is, if I want to marry a white woman I can marry in the negro race. There are as white and good women in the negro race as there is in the white race." By this time the negroes were getting hot Some of the old time darkeys sat bent forward with their mouths wide open, like alligators catching flies. In this part of his speech Dancy talked exclusively to the negroes, and the white republicans even began to look uneasy. He told the negroes the republican party was the party in which they found equality.

Unlike Pritchard and other republican speakers he let figures alone for he had sense enough to know that the figures contained nothing for the republicans. "Figures won't lie" but Dancy knows that the fusion campaigners have given place to a more modern saying that "Liars will figure."

Dancy made the best republican speech delivered here during the campaign. He told the negroes to stand together and vote the republican ticket without a scratch. He praised Bradshaw and told his negro hearers to see that he is elected. It was a negro speech delivered to negroes and was the best of its kind. When he finished the white republicans walked up and shook hands with and congratulated him. Intimacy doesn't express it—it looked like a love feast.

None of the white republicans here know who imported Dancy or at least they say they don't. It could most probably be traced to the sweet scented Holton.

All Right in Mecklenburg.

From a private letter to the editor from a prominent citizen of Charlotte we print the following:

"If democracy triumphs, as it surely will in Mecklenburg, our old state will put on new life and will never again be found fusing with such elements as have brought dishonor to her name. The cause is bright here and you may expect a good report from the "cradle of liberty."

THREE WHITE MEN SHOT!

Without Provocation at Ashpole, Robeson County.

THREATS TO BURN THE TOWN.

The Negroes Inflamed by Incendiary Speeches—The White People Determined.

Lumberton, N. C., Oct. 23—A dangerous riot occurred at Ashpole, this county, last night. Negroes to the number of forty or fifty, all armed, came in early in the evening, threatening to kill the white people and burn the town.

The white people hastily armed themselves and drove the negroes out of the town.

The negroes then promised to disperse and return to their homes, but guards were left out to protect the people from the black marauders

Late in the night the guard was fired on and three white men—Albert Floyd, Rob't Inman and Wm. Bullard, were seriously shot.

The ring leaders of the black mob are known and a crowd of one hundred men, heavily armed, are after them with blood hounds.

More trouble is expected. The negroes have been inflamed by incendiary speeches and the white people are determined to quelch it if possible in its incipiency.—Special to News and Observer.

DR. KILGO PREACHES.

At Greensboro Female College Last Night.

It is the custom at Greensboro Female College to have services in the college chapel on Sunday nights. The announcement that President Kilgo, of Trinity College, would preach last night brought out a large crowd to hear this able, learned and fearless divine.

Dr. Kilgo announced as a text the 6th, 7th and 8th verses of the 4th chapter of Paul's second letter to Timothy: For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

The sermon which followed for forty-five minutes was one of profound thought and forceful declarations. We will not attempt a synopsis, but will give a few thoughts as we jotted them down:

"This is the calm verdict of a hero on his own record. Paul had the consciousness of sublime success. He had made a wise choice and had nothing to regret. Man may glory in intellectual achievements, political supremacy, etc., but Paul gloried in the cross of Christ. What we need is fighting religion. Christian character never flourishes in hot houses. There are gentle virtues, such as patience; but overshadowing them are virtues heroic, such as courage, etc. That individual who thinks our religion is not one of manhood has never studied it. The apostolic gospel produces manhood and has a contempt for anything lacking in manhood. The world clamors for what it calls 'pure gospel.' The kind of pure gospel the world wants is a harmless lie. The world wants men who will barter off truth for the good will of men who have no interest in it.

The church needs a revival of fighting piety—we want some rough riders. The speaker was lately on the train with some rough riders who fought at Santiago, and some soldiers who had never seen service, who had not even shot a rabbit since their enlistment. The rough riders were orderly and well behaved but some of those soldiers wanted the whole train. We don't want any band-box piety sort of men. It takes a hero to deal with himself. The hardest battle in life is to conquer self.

"The man who undertakes to plant new truths has a hard time and encounters the severest opposition. The man who gets along easy is a hypocrite. Men who learn and know the truth and who will fight for it are the men wanted."

These are broken and imperfect quotations from the sermon and convey only a faint idea of its power. It was one of the best we have ever heard.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 24, '98.

Don't fail to be present at the regular meeting of the democratic club in the Odd Fellows hall tonight.

"Jim" Ragan wore a democratic badge last Saturday while in Thomasville, but Jim said them blame democrats made him wear it.

Notwithstanding the heavy rains on Friday, the democratic club attended the big barbecue Saturday. Though the rain prevented many wheelmen from going, the parade was perfect. Mr. Bryant, traveling correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, said in yesterday's paper that it took High Point to do the brilliant act, as she is always capable of doing. It was the largest, the best manned and best mounted procession that he ever had seen in North Carolina.

While Misses Donna Burns and Mamie Ellison and Mr. Ed Burns, were driving into Greensboro yesterday in a two horse carriage, the pole of the carriage broke and one end stuck into the ground and turned the carriage over. They were all thrown out and bruised, though not seriously. Miss Donna while trying to jump out was caught on the step and had it not been that the horses were stopped when they were she would have received fatal injuries.

The Anchor warehouse will open tomorrow for the sale of leaf tobacco. R. L Pickett will be manager of the warehouse this year.

Please do not get it into your head that the democratic club was responsible for the drunkeness and rowdyism in Thomasville and on the way back last Saturday. Such work as that is sometimes indulged in on Sunday school picnics.

AT M'LEANSVILLE SATURDAY.

The Candidates Spoke to a Large Crowd

The candidates for the county offices first announced themselves. Out of the number the good ladies presented a beautiful boquet of flowers to "Abe" Kirkman. Then "little Bobby" Douglas led off on the legislative ticket. He tried to defend the record of the republican and populist parties. Bob made a pretty fair republican speech; it was free from anything offensive. Bob declared he would be elected, etc. Then followed Mr. Bunch and Kennett both of whom made earnest appeals to the white men to come together and hurl from power the enemy of the people and put the standard bearer, democracy, for the restoration of peace and good government.

Capt. Forbis spoke. Then came John Wilson in a speech, while not bitter, was to the point and produced such powerful argument that his opponent, Mr. Bradshaw, didn't have much show. Mr. Bradshaw followed after two-thirds of the audience had left the house. He spoke of his record—that he was rocked in a democratic cradle, that he stayed with them as long as he could, that the democratic party was due him as much as he ever got from it, (what would the people of Randolph think of this statement?) Mr. Bradshaw was completely outdone by his opponent, Mr. Wilson.

Two beautiful boquets of flowers were presented to Mr. Wilson. A large crowd was present. About forty or fifty went down from Greensboro.

He got drunk and went up to republican headquarters, and his bad liquor and republican atmosphere soon made him disorderly. Officer Weatherly locked him up and labelled the case "drunk and disorderly."

John Smith, white, went to a man's house in West Greensboro and asked for bread. The man was shaving but John's pitiful tale touched his heart, and laying down his razor, he went into another room to get John something to eat. He informed the police and John was soon locked up.

THE TRUTH.

There is one instance on record where E. Spencer Blackburn, Assistant District Attorney for the western district, told the truth. It may be that he told it by accident but it is the truth all the same. In a speech at Statesville last week he rose in one of his impassioned flights—a contemporary says he is always impassioned, and we will add that he is most always flighty, too—and said:

"What worse could you do for Statesville than let it be known abroad that the town was dominated by negroes and controlled by negro officers? No white man of respectability or property would come and locate among you."

And in thus unconsciously telling the truth the Honorable Spencer made a fatal blunder for his cause. Out of his own mouth is the cause which he espouses condemned in as strong language as any democratic speaker has used or can use.

But well knowing the treachery of republican orators we are constrained to ask: Can it be that he meant that negro domination is all right, and the crime lays in letting it be known abroad? Actions speak lounder than words, and while Mr. Blackburn's words are seemingly truthful his actions are against them.

The conditions which he says would prevail in Statesville are already placed upon Greenville, Newbern and Wilmington. Mr. Blackburn's fusion party is directly responsible for it, and its endorsement and approval is shown by the fusion of the same parties again and the desperate efforts they are making to elect a like crowd to control the legislature again.

Mr. Blackburn flew too high just once; he got above the asphyxiating atmosphere of fusion and getting a whiff of truth spit it out before he thought what he was doing. Mark it, his wings will be tied down so that he will not be able to take such another flight. It is a positive pity and a shame to hold a man down so that he can't breathe pure air and tell the truth, but such are the ways of fusion; and it is a bad mistake for a fusionist to tell the truth.

We dare Mr. Blackburn to make that statement before an intelligent audience in every speech from now until the election day.

There are some statements of the republican candidates which need explanation. The people should keep them in mind and when they get around to Greensboro, they should be asked to explain. For instance, Messrs. Bradshaw and Douglas declare they are in favor of white supremacy. Mr. Douglas went further and said he was in favor of a "white man's party." Ask him to explain then, why it is that he is a member and a candidate of a party which in North Carolina is four-fifths negroes.

"A Cigarette Conscience."

Under the above title the Richmond Christian Advocate, the able organ of the Methodists of Virginia, has this to say:

"North Carolina Methodism is agitated from cuticle to core over a cigarette. A Methodist has turned his purse inside out for their college. It was discovered that among the assets donated was stock of a tobacco company. Shall a college cut coupons from a cigarette bond?

"A unique feature of the fight is that the conference organ is divided. One editor wants to make the other editor smoke. Whereas, the fragrant odor of a 'Virginia Bright' is an offense unto the nose of the co-editor. This battle of the golden leaf may decide many questions. Shall a Methodist own a plant bed?' Shall he 'chaw?' Shall a sister and saint 'dip' snuff? The Indian weed menaces the church beyond the Roanoke.

"Our college can be counted on to avoid taking sides, for it recently received a handsome sum, the profits of 'bright wrappers.' It would not turn its nose up at a gift even from 'lugs.' Let Brother Duke fetch his cigarette coupons to our college. He can count on a welcome."

Zeb Vance once said, "It is the small things of this life that are most annoying. A flea would cause much more irritation than an elephant."

The festive little cigarette, made of a small quantity of the best grade of tobacco and wrapped in a very small piece of rice paper, has gotten a number of prominent members of the two conferences of the Methodist Church in this State to scratching—each other as well as themselves. It has divided the editorial department of the church paper, and threatens to divide the two conferences, or create divisions in each conference, in their heretofore united support of their male college. It looks as if it will probably result in each conference having its own paper, and own college, a demand having been made by one of the editors of the Greensboro Advocate that the support heretofore given by the Western Conference to present Trinity be withdrawn and that Old Trinity be established as the college of that conference. And all on account of the little cigarette.

Something was also suggested that in case of division, or withdrawal, that "the enowment" be also divided. If this be done, will not the same "sin" that it is affected by some to believe overhangs the present Trinity engulf Old Trinity? Is not the endowment the gift of the proceeds of tobacco in one shape or another? If the endowment now used by Trinity in Durham is smothering that institution in smoke, will not a "division" of it asphyxiate Trinity at High Point? Will the creation of more positions, with salary attachments, compensate for thus unloading a part of the "incubus" from the new upon Old Trinity?

And is there patronage enough, church patronage, so-called, in both conferences, to justify two colleges? Heaven knows there is Methodist material enough in the state to fill several colleges, as there are thousands of other denominations who ought to be at college, but is there honest ground for believing they will be sent in any larger numbers to two than to one college at this time? Every good citizen whether he be a Methodist or otherwise, will rejoice to see both old and new Trinity flourishing, abounding with the youth of our state and giving the highest collegiate instruction; but in all candor, are conditions such now as to justify a division and a conflict between two institutions within the church organization? Old Trinity, we believe, is a very excellent high school. If there were such a "demand" for a division among the Methodists who are to be patrons of either institution, would such not have manifested itself by the school register? And if, even with the Christian generosity of the two tobacco kings of Durham, Colonel Carr, who gave the land, and Mr. Duke, who has given upwards of a half million of dollars, with which buildings have been erected and a fund created to support the college, the entire Methodist church, comprising the two conferences, have not contributed enough to fill one institution, what can be reasonably expected outside of places to be provided, to encourage the hope that anotoer college will succeed?

Instead of raising a voice against a single school or college that we now have, or attempting to divide and thus weaken, in the name of Christian civilization, and moral as well as of the intellectual integrity of the people had not all men, and minds and energies better go to work to arouse the people to a sense of their obligation to sustain these we now have?

But it is the little cigarette that is raising the Old Adam among some of the brethren. The manufacture of this little engine is said to be controlled by a "Trust." A trust is defined to be illegal, not because of its manufacture of an article, but because of its "restraint of trade" in that article. It ought to be some encouragement then to know that we have the influence of a powerful trust to assist in restraining the trade in the cigarette. Every restraining influence ought to be welcomed. The more trust, the more restraint; the more restraint, the better all of us who do not use the cigarette or reap any of the profits of its manufacture will be.

If the old state could just get rid of hypocrisy, selfishness, envy, uncharitableness and fusion misgovernment, what a happy and prosperous people we would soon become.—Morning Post.

Reception at Mr. and Mrs. Pugh's.

Communicated.

Last Thursday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pugh's on Summit avenue, was a scene of mirthfulness and pleasure, brilliantly lighted and beautifully decorated, being a reception in honor of their son Chas. E. Pugh and bride formerly Miss Anna B. Hancock.

About 6:30 o'clock the happy bridal party drove in, followed by the invited guests who soon filled the home with merry voices. It was a delightful scene to see the beautiful girls and handsome knights, gliding to and fro, their hearts seeming to beat with one accord which made the older ones recall pleasant memories of by gone days. An arch of evergreens extended across the hallway with the word Welcome, which made every one feel at home.

At 7:30 o'clock the dining room doors were thrown open. The room was beautifully decorated with ferns, evergreens and flowers; as many as space would allow, were seated around the table which was laden with choice fruits and such things as would tempt and satisfy the appetite. After enjoying these good things the social pastimes of the evening and the hospitality of the host and hostess, the happy party began to disperse, all voting the affair a success. There were about one hundred present, and leaving their best wishes with the host and hostess for a long and happy life.

A Friend.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in it's merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. Howard Gardner.

Leiter Hospital Closed.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 23—Leiter hospital, the largest general hospital at Chickamauga during the summer, was closed today. Only half a dozen patients remained in the hospital and these were removed to Sternberg Hospital. There are now about 100 patients in the Sternberg hospital and many of these will be discharged during the coming week.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. Howard Gardner.

A practice test of the Holland submarine boat in New York included the successful discharge of a Whitehead torpedo.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Howard Gardner.

Thirty-one mishaps to American steamboats occurred during the fiscal year, involving the deaths of 283 persons.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure.

The horribly gashed body of Lawrence Treat, a proofreader, of Cincinnatti, was found in the Ohio river.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles, We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system. acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

IF DEWEY CAME.

Would the People Go Wild and Contrive a Pandemonium?

Events have shown that we are emotional to the verge of hysteria; that we are easily fanned into enthusiasm and that our excitement lends itself with sudden fury to tempestous demonstration. Dewey will not be safe at this crisis of our feelings. New York screamed itself black in the face over the Seventy-first regiment. Villages all through the country are still palpitating because of the return of their local heroes. The whole nation is in the trill-trills about one thing or another. We haven't settled down. Roosevelt zigzags all over New York with a sort of Wild West show and countless populaces flutter at the sight of his attendant Rough Riders. The least addition to the prevailing tremor will convert us into a maudlin, screaming multitude.

We shudder—for his sake, mind you—to think of the effect that Dewey's apparition would produce at this particular time. If he lands at San Francisco, that community will go stark, staring mad. If he flanks us by way of Magellan Straits and attempts to sneak into New York, the metropolis will let down its back hair and fall into violent convulsions. There is no place on this continent where he can lay his weary head. Battalions of babies named after him will people his disordered sleep. Regiments of friends who predicted his achievements from the first will asphyxiate him with clamorous protestations. The rabble will tear him limb from limb. Processions will trample him under foot. The nation will contrive a pandemonium.

Far better for Dewey that he remain at Manila, or at least Hong Kong. Speaking in all honor and affection, we bid him keep the world between his person and the fury of his fellow citizens for a while.—Washington Post.

Mass Meeting of White People.

After the adjournament of the convention, there will be short addresses upon the political situation by Honorables T. J. Jarvis, R. T. Bennett, C. B. Aycock, C. B. Watson, Locke Craig, R. B. Glenn, Benjamin Posey and Thomas W. Mason. Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, has been invited and is expected to speak.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

Uncle Sam wants Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines, but what the American people desire above all and will have is "Grape" sun-cured tobacco.

Blackburn's Fatal Admission.

Senator Pritchard was not the only republican oratorical pebble on the beach in Statesville this week. Assistant District Attorney E. Spencer Blackburn was his forerunner, he having spoken at the court house Tuesday evening. Blackburn is noted for his attempted sky-scraping oratory, his poses and his utter recklessness of statement. Life is short and space in the Landmark is valuable, therefore we didn't follow Mr. Blackburn's speech, but in the course of his remarks he made one startling admission which deserves notice. He was complaining about the democratic cry of negro and said that democratic speakers were doing their state great damage by representing that communities were governed by negroes. "What worse could you do for Statesville," he exclaimed, "than to let it be known abroad that the town was dominated by negroes and controlled by negro officers? No white man of respectability or property would come and locate among you!"

That's it, Mr. Blackburn. That's the democratic argument, and you didn't think how it sounded when you made it. What white man of respectability or property wants to live in a community controlled by negroes, as you say; and yet your crowd turned over Greenville, Newberne, Wilmington and other towns and communities to them. Even if there are a few white men in office in these places the negroes are incontrol.—Statesville Landmark.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e. Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale by C. E. Holton.

A fine of $15,000 has been paid to the London Goldsmith's Company by a Holborn dealer in whose premises "antique silver" of modern manufacture was found. An eminent dealer in the trade says that if the public be taken in by deceptions of that kind they have themselves to blame for it, because respectable dealers who sell market prices invariably give a certificate with the goods.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it always prevents an attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

Dancy's Neck Tie.

Saturday night while John C. Dancy was speaking his neck tie worked round to the side of his neck. A white republican thought it looked very bad and made signs to Dancy to slip it back where it belonged, but the speaker failed to catch on. After making signs for some time with poor success the white man was forced to endure his embarrassment until the negro finished speaking. He did not speak long enough for the tie to work all around his neck and come back to its proper place. Dancy should be more careful about his toilet. It is too bad to embrrrass his white friends by faulty dressing.
